Tan cloth illustrated boards with gilt lettering on covers and spines. And Ruth Huckaback my favorite character.

Lorna Doone: A Romance of Exmoor

Whether the child were dead, or alive, was more than I could tell, only it hung head downwards there, and must take the chance of it.

Lorna Doone a Romance of Exmoor, Volume II by R.D. Blackmore

One with another, hard they go, to see the gain of the waters, and the tribulation of Cop, and are prone to kick the day-boys out, with words of scanty compliment.

Give me a little kiss, you Jack, and you shall have the shilling.

Lorna Doone by R.D. Blackmore

How wil un ever baide aboard zhip, wi' the watter zinging out under un, and comin' up splash when the wind blow. Nevertheless, she outraged not, though her eyes were frightening Annie, and John Fry took a pick to keep him safe; but she curbed to and fro with her strong forearms rising like springs ingathered, waiting and quivering grievously, and beginning to sweat about it. One thing, at any rate, is sure—Sir Ensor was attainted, and made a felon outlaw, through some violent deed ensuing upon his dispossession.
