John D. EDWARDS & Catherine B. ROBERTSON

Despite the heroic defense by the combined Allied forces, the Japanese continued their push southward during the month of February. I have no further information, so please don't write asking me if I do. All events, publications and associated links will be published as this extraordinary story of a life lived as an artist through half of the 20 th Century and the beginning of the 21 st Century unfolds and is recorded.

Destroyer Squadron (DesRon) 29 in World War II

She operated along the West Coast until 1 August 1929 when she sailed for the Far East, arriving Yokohama 26 August. During this time, none of them had returned to the United States or been modified on station: with the exception of jury-rigged sonar, they were equipped as first commissioned.
