Shafee crosses swords with witness over claim that 1MDB 'benefited' Umno

Shafee: Throughout your two and a half years as CEO, did you see any evidence of benefit being sent to Umno? Hazem reiterated that he believed this because he was told as much by fugitive financier Low Taek Jho, better known as Jho Low, in a meeting where Najib's late principal private secretary Datuk Azlin Alias was present. KUALA LUMPUR: A former 1Malaysia Development Bhd 1MDB CEO told the High Court here that he still believes Umno benefited from the sovereign wealth fund despite the absence of evidence. Shafee: Did you see any benefit or money being sent to Najib? Shafee said the previous 1MDB CEO who testified - Datuk Shahrol Azral Ibrahim Halmi - had never said 1MDB was for Umno.

Shafee: How much was it? Shafee then asked Hazem about the bonus he received from 1MDB upon his resignation from the company. Shafee: If you are part of it, you can tolerate it.

The lawyer also suggested that Hazem should have reached out to Najib if he found something troubling within 1MDB. Hazem: The gross amount was probably more than RM2mil.

The hearing before Justice Collin Lawrence Sequerah continues on Tuesday Feb 16. Shafee: Now you know benefiting Umno like that is criminal?. Shafee suggested that Hazem was not being honest when the witness claimed he was too terrified of Najib and tolerated the goings-on in 1MDB.

This prompted lead counsel Tan Sri Muhammad Shafee Abdullah, representing former prime minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak, to remark that Hazem was the first witness to tell the court that 1MDB was set up for Umno. He admitted, however, that he did not make an effort to see Najib.
