The Mishomis book (1979 edition)

The firekeeper tells Man of the dangers and benefits of fire. He remembered all his instructions and went back to his people. Eagle promised to fly over the earth and let the Creator know if there are still good people.

ERIC

Man was the last life form to be placed on earth. Each son meets the Doorkeeper of each direction and learns valuable lessons.

Chapter Summaries

Thank Gitchie Manito for Turtle, on whose back the new world rests! Later, people will call him Anishinabe. They taught the boy how to perform a purifying ceremony. When they grew up each son was sent out on a long journey; one to each of the four directions.

Chapter Summaries

This is important for it is with yesterday that we learn from tomorrow. He tried to catch a whirlwind whose job is to tease too serious creatures. These gifts were wisdom, love, respect, bravery, honesty, humility and truth, as well as the knowledge of the four directions.
