Herron had the aforementioned tyre issues and dropped back to sixth but his lap remained the fastest ever seen in the British Isles until Adrian Archibald went quicker at the 2003 Dundrod 150 meeting.

North West 200: Irwin smashes lap record to seal Superbike pole

Kawasaki stablemate Harrison, who held provisional pole in SBK after Tuesday's running, set a new unofficial class lap record of 4m21. One significant note about the North West 200 is that a sidecar race has never been held. Dunlop was fourth on his MD Racing-bannered BMW, with Johnston and Harrison rounding the top six from Bathams BMW's Rutter, Cooper, Hutchinson and Lee Hardy Racing's Gary Johnson.
