Gian Paolo Panini

Ferdinando Arisi mentions a replica of the Dublin painting, with the same dimensions as the present painting but location unknown see Literature below.

Giovanni Paolo Pannini Paintings & Artwork for Sale

The Spanish monarchs appreciated his work in such a way that, commissioned by , he sent paintings to decorate the Lacquer Room of the. Panini seems a little older here than he does in the Louvre Concert but is certainly close in age to his self-portraits of 1757-59, suggesting that the two paintings being offered here can be plausibly dated to the first half of the 1750s.

Panini, Gian Paolo. Museo Nacional Thyssen

Pannini began his apprenticeship under Benedetto Luti, a painter of small-scale subjects, before establishing himself as a master when nominated to the Accademia di San Luca in 1719. The painting was sold in 1906 at an auction.

Panini Landscape — Robert Simon Fine Art

Panini painted at least six signed versions of the Interior of St. This unpublished capriccio is an early work by Giovanni Paolo Panini, who was the pre-eminent painter of vedute in Rome in the second and third quarters of the 18th century.

The pool at Bethesda

The picture should be varnished, and some of the filling and retouching reexamined.
