Special Education Students Study, Strategies

As the global economy recovers, the opportunity exists for countries to expand their focus beyond a narrow return to growth. Data from 37 countries was mapped against the 11 priorities outlined in the report and found that while no country is fully prepared for recovery and economic transformation, some are better placed than others.

Few Economies Are Ready for Long

Develop the skills you need to make the most of your time as a student. The Essential Workbooks, approved by the GED® Test and HiSET® Exam, are great stand alone resources but also blend perfectly with our High School Equivalency courses.

Teaching Students with Special Needs in Inclusive Settings

John now lives with his wife, Judith Nadell, near Philadelphia. This Report makes clear the priorities for making economies more productive, sustainable and inclusive as we emerge from the crisis. Students with severe to profound disabilities may be in the regular classroom for only twenty or thirty minutes a day.
