Lab Equipment Repair & Maintenance

Each team member is providing value in many ways! But what happens if you throw a propeller blade, damage landing gear, or encounter any other sort of mishap that damages your TechOne RC airplane? The results are encouraging to me to continue down this path and build on the relationship that I have with TechOne so that we can quickly meet the needs of my teams by adding top talent as quickly as possible. The program has been a complete success for our organization! Not only were they capable test executors, on par with or better than more expensive contractors, but over time, they started writing test cases as well. Our more senior team members are enjoying the opportunity to provide mentoring, resulting in stronger teams.
