Market Theatre

Workshop '71's Survival, which was permitted to perform in the Box Theater at the University of the Witwatersrand, and also to tour California, was banned as soon as it became popular in the townships.

Kings Of The World

After a second banning term in 1983, he created Dry Those Tears, about the death of a young black man and his struggle to find employment in a racist bureaucracy. Classes run in twelve week cycles, allowing new students to join throughout the year. Maqina does not rely on any white capital or subsidy, and tours the townships, performing in church and community halls.
