His father, Sŏhyŏn, when he was chief commander, fought Paekche many times and fought against their storm attacks so they would not violate our territory. Ode to Knight Taemara by Siro 692-702 All men sorrow and lament Over the spring that is past; Your face once fair and bright, Where has it gone with deep furrows? If you think it is too little, you can take more.

Han'guk ũi chimyŏng yurae (Book, 1986) [quizapp.evertonfc.com]

One commentator suggests that this is a patriotic song which eulogizes the blessings of peace. The Queen heard this and rejoiced, Kim Yusin received a title and a large reward. Taemara-rang himself joined in a campaign against Paekche as early as the eight moon of the year 649.
