Atkin, eds, Public Communication Campaigns, second edition, Newbury Park, CA: Sage, 1989. A Thousand Cuts explores the obsessions of the colorful individuals who created their own screening rooms, spent vast sums, negotiated underground networks, and even risked legal jeopardy to pursue their passion for real, physical film.

Understanding Jargon

Cook, Governing With the News: The News Media As a Political Institution, Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1998. It is about the death of physical film in the digital era and about a paranoid, secretive, eccentric, and sometimes obsessive group of film-mad collectors who made movies and their projection a private religion in the time before DVDs and Blu-rays. He regularly advises the private sector, governments, agencies, military, Congress, and academia.
