Mater et magistra

Quin immo hos sensus, praeter quam quod in honore habere dignum est, tum vero perfici et expoliri oportet, quippe in quibus veri nominis nitatur humanitas.

Mater et Magistra

John XXIII says that the human person is responsible for his acts and has a capacity for self-mastery see MM, 55.

The Challenge of Mater et Magistra. Edited by Joseph N. Moody and Justus George Lawler. Herder and Herder, 232 Madison Avenue, New York, 16. N.Y. 1963. 280 pp. Mater et Magistra, Linee generali e problemi particolari. A cura di Th. Mulder, s.j., ed. Hervé Carrier, s.j. Libreria Editrice dell'Università Gregoriana, Piazza della Pilotta 4, Roma, 1963. 197 pp.

The encyclical shifts towards approval of concerted action aimed at the common good. Pius XI had recognized that specific structural changes were required justice, although he never suggested that redistributive programs were morally legitimate.
