Agriculture: History & Introduction

The differences between them reflect their different theologies.

Bible History, Maps, Images, Articles, and Resources for Biblical History

So more than a thousand years before the Israelite legend of Noah and the ark you have Mesopotamians telling the stories Ziusudra, or in some versions Utnapishtim who also survived a great flood by building an ark on the instruction of a deity, and the flood destroys all life, and he sends out birds to scout out the dry land, and so on. Now this impersonal primordial realm, Kaufman declares, contains the seeds of all beings.

Gilgamesh, Atrahasis and the Flood

The Israelites were making a point about God, not simply relaying meteorological information. He tells the zamindar whose prized bull he defeated that he did not mean to disrespect him; he was doing only what a son ought to do. Typically, so far as existing sources now reveal, a covenant between social groups regularized in advance the relationships between two societies after one had been subjugated by a superior coercive force, usually by military action or the threat thereof.

The Jewish Goddess, Past and Present

It has a , but there is not enough present. The library contains a mass of information about the ancient world and will exercise scholars for generations to come.
