A great political event was soon to happen at Saint-Cloud. She abjured Lutheranism on the eve of her marriage. At this point Bonaparte knew that his troops, depleted in number, were exhausted, afflicted by fatigue and illness, and therefore incapable of continuing with the expedition beyond the territory they had already conquered.

Returns are dealt with on an individual basis and must be by prior arrangement. In only a few months, Bonaparte succeeded in defeating four disciplined Austrian armies in battle, expanding the territory of the Republic, and establishing two sister republics, before finally forcing most of the dynastic sovereigns of the Italian peninsula to negotiate with him directly. Her suspicions have been shared by historians, who briefly add that Louis XIV.
