How to Start a Club: 7 Steps to Starting A Membership Club or Organization

In other words, a public accommodation must ensure equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities. ILLUSTRATION 2: Placing ornamental plants in an elevator lobby may be a violation if they block the approach to the elevator call buttons or obstruct access to the elevator cars.

Applications

In order to prove membership status, any person receiving the distilled spirits drink must show, upon request, a membership card which has been issued to them in accordance with the provisions of this Subtitle, or in the alternative, they must have their name legibly entered, by the permittee or their employee, into a well bound, business identified, membership book.

Title 5, Subtitle C

Major life activities include such activities as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working. What about areas such as hotel rooms that are work areas for cleaning people? These include -- 1 Equal opportunity to participate; 2 Equal opportunity to benefit; and 3 Receipt of benefits in the most integrated setting appropriate.

Title 5, Subtitle D

ILLUSTRATION: C is excluded from a private elementary school because the principal believes rumors that C is infected with the HIV virus. Both permanent and temporary facilities are subject to the barrier removal requirements.

Title 5, Subtitle E

Because the land is marshy, provision of an accessible grade-level entrance may be structurally impracticable. A private entity offering an examination covered by this section is responsible for selecting and administering the examination in a place and manner that ensures that the examination accurately reflects an individual's aptitude or achievement level or other factor the examination purports to measure, rather than reflecting the individual's impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills except where those skills are the factors that the examination purports to measure. No person shall be considered a member of a private club holding a permit under the alcoholic beverage control laws of the State of Arkansas unless such person has met the membership requirements as set forth in the by laws of the non-profit corporation.

Title 5, Subtitle D

This prohibition applies to cases where the public accommodation has knowledge of both the individual's disability and his or her relationship to another individual or entity. Transportation services provided only to employees of a place of public accommodation are not subject to the Department's title III regulation but are covered by the regulation issued by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to implement title I of the ADA.

ADA Title III Technical Assistance Manual

An entity offering a variety of courses covered by this section may not limit the selection or choice of courses available to individuals with disabilities.
