Last of the Breed by Willie Nelson,
Merle Haggard & Ray on Apple
Music

Fire is not easy to make without certain tools and even skilled bushcrafters are challenged in finding the right materials for say, a bow drill, in unfamiliar territory. He is a Yakut, a Siberian counterpart of the American Indian.

Last of the Breed

Suddenly, in his small, bare office, two savages faced each other, each a paragon of his kind.

Last of the Breed by Louis L'Amour

Forty four years on the planet, probably thirty of those in an awareness of this author and this the first of his books I've read. We call them the iron men of the north.

Last of the Breed by Willie Nelson, Merle Haggard & Ray on Apple Music

I could have forgiven all that if the wilderness survival parts had been better described. The Last of the Breed has borrowed a lot from this story.
