

Clues for Revolutionary War soldiers with connections to Louisville and Jefferson County, Kentucky

Ancestors, Inc. - 1671

Description: -

-

Advertising -- China -- History.

Advertising -- Government policy -- China -- History.

United States -- History -- Revolution, 1775-1783 -- Biography.

Kentucky -- History -- Revolution, 1775-1783 -- Biography.

Jefferson County (Ky.) -- Genealogy.

Louisville (Ky.) -- Genealogy.

Soldiers -- Kentucky -- Jefferson County -- Genealogy.

Soldiers -- Kentucky -- Louisville -- Genealogy.

Clues for Revolutionary War soldiers with connections to Louisville and

Jefferson County, Kentucky

-Clues for Revolutionary War soldiers with connections to Louisville and Jefferson County, Kentucky

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 208-212) and index.

This edition was published in 1990

Filesize: 9.101 MB

Tags: #Franklin #County, #Georgia; #Online #Images #of #Wills, #Estates, #Genealogy #Records

At Your Service: Military Research Guide

Perhaps the Bible can be found and scanned.

Kentucky Fast Facts and Key Resources

He died in 1899, in Boyle County.

lewis and clark Archives • Tennessee Pryors

Since many of the Ellis family in Shelby County were descendants of a John Ellis of the Tuckahoe River, the Virginia line is one that should be explored. Another descendant of Robert Woodson was Jesse Woodson James.

Kentucky Pioneers

I am trying to learn when they arrived in the US, and where in Ireland they came from. Navy was able to crack Japanese encryption, enabling them to concentrate on defending Midway, giving American forces this most critical of victories in the Pacific Theater. Martha Stone - Lucy to learn the business of housekeeping and Charles to learn the business of farming.

Uncovering Your Family Tree

Ellis Note: on close reading of the will this appears to be the same person as it refers to the same land description, and Alphonso Hatfield. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

The Robertson / Kubberness Connection

Not all farmers owned land or livestock, of course, but it is always worthwhile to check all extant records for the place where a person is known to have lived. Time dims our memories and mistakes are more likely to be made.

Western Kentucky Genealogy Blog: 2007

Ohio River near Louisville, KY Over the weekend I was searching out some new links to the Pryors in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Franklin County, Georgia; Online Images of Wills, Estates, Genealogy Records

Elizabeth Pryor Harper in her book Twenty-One Southern Families: Notes and Genealogies mentions 3 military land grants in 1791. And before Kentucky the brothers were from Pennsylvania. It would have been the end of the war.

Related Books

- Wan jari srefidensi.
- Issledovanie i razrabotka sposobov i sredstv obespecheniia vzryvobezopasnosti na gornykh predprii
- God that failed - six studies in communism
- Propriedade, família e trabalho no hinterland de Lisboa - Oeiras, 1738-1811
- Selected annotated bibliography on precast concrete wall panels