In our disability process, we evaluate your ability to do the physical and mental activities you were required to do in your past work. If you get a campus visit interview, you will most likely need to prepare a presentation about your research and may be asked to teach a class.

Steps after I

Keep us informed of how your case goes. What key words do they use? You may find the information we need on your payslips or you can ask your employer.

Your Next Step

Live as if everyday is your last day. First, you need a decent computer with a fast Internet connection--DSL or a cable modem will make a big difference when you're uploading photos to your auctions.

The Next Step: Career Advancement For Medical Assistants

This is something that few doctoral programs prepare you for. However, the medical is usually required regardless of age.

9 Signs You're a Burned

How long does it take? However, absence of formal education does not necessarily mean you are uneducated or limited in your ability to adjust to work. We will not consider your ability to adjust to other work on the basis of your age alone. I did not receive a checklist for things to do after they enter the US.
