THE HISTORY OF THE PEBBLE MILL FOYER (and everything around it).

Yardley or Wash Mill and its pool lay on the east of the Cole near the junction of Millhouse Road and Wash Lane. In 1841 Joseph Davis left it together with Harborne Mill to his son Samuel. It later became the Mill Inn and Mill Farm; the mill house, on the south side of the lane, appears to have become the inn, while the mill buildings were on the north of the lane.

THE HISTORY OF THE PEBBLE MILL FOYER (and everything around it).

The controller Phil Sidey who devised the series, makes the decision that the foyer will be a good idea.

Pebble Mill Home

In the 19th century the rolling mill with the stamp and press was of great importance in the development of the Birmingham trades.

Memories

Hopefully this explains the frequent references to UK telefantasy.
