Mueller, Gerhard O. W. [WorldCat Identities]

The answer will largely depend upon whether you have led the family to Mass each Sunday, whether you say grace before meals in your home, whether you take an active part in the spiritual life of your parish. Why the Church opposes mixed marriages. If he is given a piece of candy before dinner, he will probably understand if he is told that he must not eat it until after his meal.

Delinquency and Puberty

What offenses call for physical punishment? Hence the typical Catholic family will have many more children than are found in the average family of other beliefs. Most of us know persons who have received the finest educations which universities can bestow, who yet lead miserable lives because they have never achieved a capacity to love.

He now spends much time trying to inculcate masculine virtues in her and berates her constantly because she is not proficient at sports.

The Catholic Family Handbook

Keep in mind what purpose your discipline is intended to serve. Whenever one little boy did something wrong, he ran to his father and confessed.
