A Night on the Peak of Tai Shan, China's Holiest Mountain

After that, Yang draws a branch of peach blossoms with Li Xiangjun's blood on the fan, and it is sent to Hou Fangyu to show Li Xiangjun's determination. Our Self nature is inseparable from Tao nature and can therefore never be destroyed. Jin Fu, author of Chinese Theatre, wrote that the fan and poem symbolize the integrity and determination of Li Xiangjun.

About Us

Like other Southern-style plays the play incorporates martial scenes and a love affair central to the plot. Evidence of human settlement of the area can be proven from the period onwards. This suspended corridor leads you to an small temple cave.

The Peach Blossom Fan

Hou Fangyu and his friends are in one grouping, while the Ma Shiyong and Ruan Dacheng group forms an opposing grouping. These include a Temple of the Jade King ; ; , a Temple of the Blue Deity ; ; , a Temple of Confucius ; ; , a Temple of ; ; and the Puzhao Buddhist Temple ; ; . Steep mountains and drifting mists — Shan shui as the Chinese call landscapes, with lonely and gnarled trees — are the very elements of Chinese painting.

Sacred Mountains of China

. There is a pond in the center and several pavilions around it. Singapore: Graham Brash PTE Ltd.

Hua Shan

Across the whole mountain are scattered 72 caves and 21 remains of Taoist buildings. Taking three sticks of incense from her bag, she lit them, bowed to the gods with the burning incense in her hands, then put them in a censer in front of the altar.
