Internal Assessment & External Assessment

When evaluating opinion evidence, an ALJ is required to explain in the decision the weight given to any opinions from treating sources, non-treating sources, and non-examining sources. Syed Samee encouraged Plaintiff to lose weight by diet and exercise.

How Umalusi adjusted the 2010 matric results

Nickerson, there is nothing in the regulations requiring an ALJ to recontact a treating physician whose opinion was contradictory or unreliable. By the way, in this example, those candidates who obtained 0 or 300 did not have their marks adjusted! Plaintiff experienced several symptoms and behavioral reactions characteristic of PTSD, including anger, homicidal rage, hypervigilance, hyperstartle response, recurring thoughts, flashbacks and angry memories, erratic and unstable moods, depressive mood states, and avoidance reactions.

POPPE v. BERRYHILL

Raw Business Studies The 2010 raw mean of 36.

Assessment

At the standardisation meeting, the assessment body is allowed to make a case for adjusting the marks for a subject or recommends that the raw marks be accepted as final. Kasten noted that plaintiff was awakening 5 times a night and had difficulty falling asleep.

Internal moderation

The raw mean of 68. The 2010 raw mean was adjusted from 73.

Internal Assessment & External Assessment

Plaintiff argues, therefore, that the brush hogging incident occurred before his onset date. Johnson noted that plaintiff became agitated when talking about his current living situation, speaking loudly and using expletives.
