Blisworth, Northamptonshire

Development began to be restricted in the mid 1960s, mainly because of the need to maintain open countryside between the expanded built-up area of Northampton and the villages immediately to the south of the borough, with the result that expansion between 1970 and the end of the century was much slower than in the previous twenty years. After the Dissolution the premises were concealed from the Crown and were not included in the grant of Hyde to Richard Fermor in 1550.
