John the Baptist Announces Jesus

An eschatologist is somebody who sees that the problem of the world is so radical that it's going to take some kind of divine radical solution to solve it.

Jesus' Baptism by John

But it's the Kingdom on earth of God. The prophets and kings of Israel foretold His coming.

Letters of John

Luke 1:41 Mary And Elizabeth With Jesus And John the Baptist— Johann Fredrich Overbeck, 1825 Many have speculated over the centuries about the kinship of Mary and Elizabeth. Now, we don't know how that impacted Jesus, whether on the basis of the death of John he reconsidered the apocalyptic message that had come from John or whether he wanted to continue it and extend it.

Letters of John

A Real Missionary John was excited about this good news and wanted to tell all who would listen. The gospel he writes is quick and to the point and does not contain long, drawn out stories.

The Importance of John the Baptist

In 1960, in a letter to those engaged in education, the general had to confront those who doubted whether the colleges were a ministry proper to the Society or who asserted that they were not in conformity with the spirit of Ignatius of Loyola.
