Rite of Christian Initiation Adults (RCIA) Stages

The distinctive Christian practice of the Eucharist also dates to the first Christians. Parents ought to have their children baptized as soon as possible and should be careful to arrange for the best possible Godparents. The Catechism has four 'pillars' that guides the reader in studying revelation: 1.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Baptism is necessary for salvation, so we should never delay in having our children baptized. There is no set timetable and those who join the process are encouraged to go at their own pace, taking as much time as they need.

The Process of Christian Initiation

Baptism and Eucharist are the two most important sacraments, and are practiced by most Christians. Students may complete all lessons at their own pace. The third step is the Celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation, which takes place during the Easter Vigil Liturgy on Holy Saturday when the catechumen receives the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Holy Eucharist.

Discipleship Ministries

The Sacred Chrism, or oil, is a sign of the gift of the Holy Spirit being given to the newly baptized. When we invite people to respond in faith and to profess their intention to follow Jesus Christ, we invite them to share with us in a covenant to be remembered, affirmed, and lived out in love for God and neighbor.
