Morrill: an Address Delivered at New Haven, Connecticut, November 14, 1900, at the Request of the Executive Committee of the American Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations. He was the eldest in a family of ten children, and was early inured to habits of industry and thrift. In January 1863, over significant local opposition from Confederate partisans and religious and other private educational interests, the Kentucky Legislature, on the recommendation of Unionist Governor James F.
