Coltrane at the Village Vanguard

He then decided that he wanted to learn how to improvise and was influenced by the music of Charlie Parker.

John Coltrane

Live at the Village Vanguard (The Thad Jones/Mel Lewis Orchestra album)

Coltrane was able to integrate the two, to put everything in context, in such a sophisticated way that it influenced everybody. They play just great and make sure that this music sounds totally fresh, whilst at the same time being deeply rooted in the jazz tradition.

Live at the Village Vanguard

The CD liner has NO notes at all, nothing to say who mastered it, etc. John Coltrane's switch in musical style was not universally popular, with critics and audiences alike turning on him as they struggled to understand the nuances of his music.

John Coltrane

Wynton and company do -- in full measure. .
