the risks of disinflation will be higher in 2021, relative to the risks of inflation overshoot. In particular gold and the USD are not correlated during major events: a major rally in gold 2010, a major breakdown in gold 2013 or a major breakout 2019. Also, gold can be a store of value during economic chaos war, hyperinflation, panic, pestilence, etc. Gold can be used as a to protect against economic events like or inflation.

The Staggering Levels of Real “Inflation

How could that be the case? When it comes to gold now is the time to accumulate positions by buying the dips for the long term. So, what about gold as an inflation hedge? One reason for the recent weakness is rising treasury yields, more specifically, rising real yields.
