World of Solitaire

Daniel John Just handing down what I was handed down.

In praise of solitude in science

The most restrictive form prohibits any outdoor access until after 30 days in confinement, and then only for two hours twice during a 30-day period.

Solitaire

Those who are deaf or hard of hearing may not be able to have even the informal conversations that others in solitary confinement may engage in by yelling. While the numbers may seem small, the effect of this type of confinement is
