Brownie Adventures: Knot

They all really want a copy for their very own.

The Brownies Latest Adventures by Palmer Cox: Good Hardcover (1910)

After a few exercises to practice the moves and some correcting of our footwork, everyone was kitted up with a mask and plastic! We are Jayson Lil Jay, Jay'Elle, and Jayde, known as the Brownies. We stopped on the top of a steep hill for a quick break and then walked down towards where walk finished! At the end of the year they will earn the Camping Special Interest badge. The sun stayed out just long enough for us all to have an ice cream but then it was time for a hasty retreat into the nearby church hall for some games with a parachute and giant straws and a change of clothes for a few! In two groups, we were shown round a few of the main galleries — particularly focusing on images of well-known people and what features help us recognise them in different portrayals.

Adventures at home for young people

We do accept money orders, cashier's checks, and personal checks mailed to us. On the 28 th of August we did a bead craft with the Brownies. At Bonaly, we were joined by some of the Rainbow units who had done a slightly shorter walk and had some snacks and drinks — well deserved after the walk! Our blog focuses on Schoolcations and Family Travel.

This can be bought at any hardware or outdoor store. All in all, everyone seems happy with the new book and badges.

Adventures at home for young people

We've had about three meetings so far and the girls have really started getting into a rhythm. The first section is all about Brownies, what we do, a little history, WAGGGS, and the Promise.
