School Operations Archives

I appeal to everyone involved in the debate to have as their primary focus the education of our young children. I trust that, as part of that process, the Department will accept that the Education Authority is not the Education and Skills Authority and that, consequently, there is still more than one planning body for schools in.

However, I have often said that although the Dearing report comprises 18 volumes, all of us who are interested in the issue should remember one sentence at its heart. In fact, as anybody with a clue will tell you, physical and emotional abuse are horrible motivators leading to far more problems than they solve. If she did sit down at a computer a gaggle of girls started up this dramatic scene, shifting feet, hands on hips, exasperated sighs, groans, telling her she is hogging the computer, then another, let someone else have a turn, hurry up the gaggle of girls before my child could even answer a single question.
