Newstead Montegrade: The truth comes out

For example, in the view below, you can see the South Station area in 1938 in the circle and what it looked like in 1888 - note that the location of the tracks is completely different - and that they terminated at a different station: This Sanborn comparison has been done to death nationwide. Inside, among other works, is The Negro Spiritual Speaks of Life and Death, a striking multimedia piece depicting a black Christ on a crucifix surrounded by other religious objects. .
