Frunze

The purge of the Soviet military liquidated the generation of officers who had given the Red Army the deep battle strategy, operations and tactics and who also had rebuilt the Soviet armed forces.

Mikhail Frunze : definition of Mikhail Frunze and synonyms of Mikhail Frunze (English)

Unlike Tukhachevsky, Svechin determined the next war could only be won by attrition, not by a single or several decisive battles.

Soviet Hammer: MIKHAIL VASILIEVICH FRUNZE, (1885

Fully engaging in the Second World War after the the , the Soviets struggled to relearn it. Should the attack prove successful at pinning the enemy in place and defeating its forces in battle, mechanized forces would break the flank and surround the enemy with infantry to consolidate the success.

มีฮาอิล ฟรุเนซ

This would require a strong economy and a loyal and politically motivated population in order to outlast the enemy.

A Blossom in the Hotbed

Many streets and towns of the former Soviet Union still carry his name. He had a long record of revolution ary activity.

KALINOVSKIY Konstantin Bronislavovich Kalinovskiy 1897-1931 Served in the Red Army since 1918. Graduated from the RKKA Military Academy in 1923.

Deep operation

Resta comunque il fatto che nel lungo dibattito che seguì la Guerra civile circa il futuro dell'Armata Rossa egli ebbe la meglio su Tockij. The doctrine pursued by the Soviets was offensively oriented. As the largest tactical unit it formed the central component of the tactical deep battle.
