

Honey - a modern wound management product

Wounds-UK Books - Honey in wound care: effects, clinical application and patient benefit

Description: -

-Honey - a modern wound management product

-Honey - a modern wound management product

Notes: Professional & Scholarly.

This edition was published in 2005

Filesize: 48.34 MB

Tags: #Honey: #An #Effective #Regenerative #Medicine #Product #in #Wound #Management

Honey in Wound Management

Today, a number of honey-based wound-management preparations are available commercially and interesting research continues to emerge in this area. Honey in wound care: understanding the evidence.

Honey in modern wound care: A systematic review

In general, honey is also been mentioned to have deodorizing, debridement, anti-inflammatory and wound pain reducing properties, although the evidence for these properties is rather limited. A helps you keep on top of advances in wound management, improves your skills, and demonstrates to your patients and colleagues that you are committed to providing the best in wound care.

Honey: An Effective Regenerative Medicine Product in Wound Management

Browse through our for information on our comprehensive range of education options to suit healthcare professionals across the full spectrum of qualifications and experience. The use of honey for the treatment of two patients with pressure ulcers.

Honey in wound care: effects, clinical application and patient benefit

The associated costs of treating such wounds are escalating as a result. In burns there is also evidence for its antibacterial capacity.

Apitherapy News: Book Review

Honey, known for centuries as a topical treatment for a wide range of wounds, has recently known a revival in modern wound care. Complement Ther Clin Pract 2008;14:77-82. In addition, the comprehensive list of citations included in this book are likely to be a valuable resource for both students and practitioners alike.

Related Books

- Alphabet of the night
- Sheloshah she-kadmu le-Ven-Yehudah.
- Guillon journals, 1952-1955
- De mediae comoediae sermone.
- Finalised rural West Edinburgh local plan - pre-inquiry modifications : consolidated list February/J