Full text of the New Haven colony historical

One of those elected preferred to cast in his lot with the group of students who went to Wethersfield; and this left as the sole resident officer here, Samuel Johnson, a man destined to large success in mature life as the Apostle of Episcopacy in Connecticut, but then only two years from graduation and twenty years of age. Ranch, Samuel H Public Lib'y, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Where there's a will, there's a way

The whole of our Army lay on their Arms all night. The collection of fees was from time to time the subject of investigation, and it is recorded in the Proceedings of the Council, 1687 to 1693, that John Knight, Commander of the ship Enoreaae from Yowhall, who seems to have been styled Deputy Secretary in another portion of the same record, made a report to the Commis- 134 MARYLAND HISTORICAL MAGAZINE.

Times Leader 09

The opening up of the Patapsco to settlement came at a trou- blous time in the colony's history. The total number of letters granted in 1776 was 14; in 1777, 33; in 1778, 42; in 1779, 49; in 1780, 61; in 1781, 25.

Where There is a Will There is a Way

Talbot 1 Looke on an Indian Conquest or purchase to be a sufficient title to barr a weaker Indian pretension, but not to oppose an English Pattantee that hath his Charter from the Crowne of England as appeares in the Case of Capt Claybourne that bought Manapousen now the Isle of Kent from the Indians before the Maryland Charter and in that right seated upon it but was cast out by an order of Councill upon a full hearing in England. Quitt, Max H 215 St Paul St Rabobo, Chbis 1314 W.
