Benchpeg

In the new installation, sculpture is judiciously sited — from the Nottingham alabaster in the first room onwards — to create a dialogue with the paintings: notably in the new juxtaposition of sculptured portrait busts with painted portraits of the same period. Each entry consists of a colour image, a description of the object or group of objects and a brief biography of the maker. After correction for the study period, the prospective analysis teams estimated that risks would have caused 8677 and 4756 process deviations to occur, respectively.
