Financial Literacy & Education Resource Center

But this should not be down to consumer choice alone. It is being made available in an effort to advance the understanding of scientific, environmental, economic, social justice and human rights issues etc. As a not-for-profit organisation, we use all the money we make from our commercial operations to support the activities of the Which? Finally, because of their authority and national reach, ministries of health can perform some advocacy activities aimed at the general public. Regulations could clarify such a requirement, along with tools to carry it out. Congress is specifically interested in how the new law affects health care markets.

Who we are

Abstract The World Health Organization urges countries to become more active in advocacy efforts to put mental health on governments' agendas. We work on issues that affect consumers in multiple countries and across national borders.

Who we are

Furthermore, governments on their own often cannot adequately educate the public about mental disorders in order to create the social and cultural conditions necessary to eliminate stigma and discrimination against people with mental disorders.

Bringing sustainability home We help consumers to make the right choices, not just in purchasing products for the home, but also in protecting this planet that we all call home. The majority of the research included in the various Which? ROLE OF GOVERNMENT IN SUPPORTING ADVOCACY ORGANIZATIONS One useful function that ministries of health can perform is to act as an information clearinghouse for the different mental health advocacy groups in the country. Organizations of family members of people with mental disorders, professional organizations and non-governmental organizations working in the field of mental health can also play a vital role in mental health advocacy.

Organic Consumers Association

We work with our members and partners on issues where we can achieve global impact for consumers. For example, a group working to protect the interests of consumers and families in India called Action for the Mental Illness has been fighting in court to force state level authorities in India to treat people with mental disorders the same way they treat people with physical disorders.
