We listen to it at first as if it were an interesting tale. Scripture: John 20:24 — 31 Title: The God Who Shows Himself INTRO: Grace and peace this morning in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit! And in it all I recognize myself, I recognize, so. Then suddenly we encounter some saying or scene in his life which is so strange and intractable that it simply.

The Waiting Father; The favorite story that Jesus told, The Prodigal Son, is really of the Waiting Father... of Two Prodigal Sons. The Parable of the Tares among the Wheat; VII. Here is a university professor, steeped in the lore and language of theology and philosophy, who nevertheless, because of his closeness to life and his passionate concern to communicate to men in real life, can draw, without benefit of public relations techniques and high-powered promotional build-up, thousands of people, young and.
