St Petrock's Church, Parracombe

Uneven floors but passable in a wheelchair with care. Eland, Exeter 1895 is online. The village stands 2½ miles SW of the boundary with Somerset, 4½ SW of Lynton, and 12 NE of Barnstaple station on the G.

Parracombe to Challacombe Circular

Like the former Lynton to Barnstaple Railway, closed in 1935, this road diverts around the village approximately following the 250 metre 800 feet contour. The manor belonged in the time of the Confessor to Bristwold, went at the Norman Conquest to one of the Conqueror's captains, passed afterwards to the Traceys and the Fitz-Martyns, and belonged to the St Albyns from 1310 till 1862.

A Real Throwback

The church is ancient, and has a tower. Tickets will be available on the day, for more details please contact Karen Farrington at.
