Yet you choose to call us enemies of the , rather than of. But on this very account, perhaps, we are regarded as having less claim to be held brothers, that no tragedy makes a noise about our brotherhood, or that the possessions, which generally destroy brotherhood among you, create fraternal bonds among us. Everybody , however it is spread abroad, on whatever strength of asseveration it rests, that some time or other from some one fountain it has its origin.

CHURCH FATHERS: Apology (Tertullian)

Is that the way of it? Now first, when you sternly lay it down in your sentences, It is not lawful for you to exist, and with unhesitating rigour you enjoin this to be carried out, you exhibit the and domination of mere tyranny, if you deny the thing to be lawful, simply on the ground that you wish it to be unlawful, not because it ought to be. Let the emperor make on heaven; let him lead heaven captive in his triumph; let him put guards on heaven; let him impose taxes on heaven! With our hands thus stretched out and up to , rend us with your iron claws, hang us up on crosses, wrap us in flames, take our heads from us with the sword, let loose the wild beasts on us — the very attitude of a is one of preparation for all punishment.

Definition and Examples of Apologia in Rhetoric

Even now reflect what opportunity there is for mistakes leading to incestuous comminglings — your promiscuous looseness supplying the materials. Indeed, how could religion make a people great who have owed their greatness to their irreligion? They suffer at the hands of Him to whom they have been ungrateful.

Apology (Plato)

From being its haters they become its. And this at the very time they are shouting, May Jupiter take years from us, and with them lengthen like to you,— words as foreign to the lips of a as it is out of keeping with his character to desire a change of emperor.
