Regional Development and Planning: An Overview

Malawi PDF The Strategic Plan of the Ministry of Social Development and Persons with Disabilities 2004-2007 is a comprehensive framework, which was aimed to guide the direction of the ministry to adapt to change and offer a dynamic and conducive environment in which persons with disabilities can be accommodated to fully participate in national development. Secondly following a strategic approach reduces the risk of single authorities setting weaker GBI policy in a bid to attract development, potentially at the expense of other constituent authorities. BCC also see an integration of more effective mains drainage and flood management, via deculverting and daylighting through NBS and ecological re-engineering as a significant part of this process.
