The Day I Told My Husband I Didn't Want to Be Married

It's important to agree on this one from the beginning. If she doesn't want to be a part of this, that is her choice; she is not to be included in any planning unless she changes her attitude.

10 Things Every Bride Should Know Before Her Wedding Night

If things are so uncomfortable that you don't wish to visit often, at least call your mother once a month.

Summer Weddings: Everything You Need to Know to Have a Summer Wedding

If you have contempt for her, then by all means, end the relationship, because showing contempt toward your spouse is devastating to the person on the receiving end--so if you think she deserves it, then let her go to live her life, please. Transportation for the wedding party and other VIPs: The ride to the ceremony: Brides and grooms often travel separately to the ceremony with their respective attendants in tow, though you may opt for a ride with your parents, or to rent a trolley or shuttle for the wedding party to ride in together. Do you avoid each other? But how's Mom getting there? It's foolish to keep money secrets from your spouse.
