Ernst Mayr, Ph.D.

The Hall Branch is named for George Cleveland Hall, African American physician, Chicago Public Library board member and a founding member of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, who campaigned tirelessly for a full-service library in Bronzeville. She was eventually joined by timber merchant Mitrofan Belyayev, railway magnate Savva Mamontov and textile manufacturer Pavel Tretyakov.

Greg Harris has been a nationally syndicated cartoonist whose work appeared in more than 50 African American newspapers. Ralph Metcalfe was an Olympic track athlete and was later elected a Chicago alderman and Congressman. There is no reason however to suppose that these personal travails impacted negatively on the quality of his musical inspiration or capacity.

Phil Mickelson

Pougin Pamphlet Collection Location: M2A 3,2. Coming out on top just gives me more confidence. His total of six professional major tournament wins were more than any other player in the world from 1987 through 1996.

African American

Chicago Public Library, Woodson Regional Library, Vivian G. Compiled by Oskar Fleischer in the course of writing a book on notation. Harsh Research Collection of Afro-American History and Literature.

African American

Miss Antoine was a successful opera singer who performed with the Metropolitan Opera 1935-47 , and later taught at the Eastman School of Music 1957-59; 1966-71. Harsh Research Collection of Afro-American History and Literature.

Nick Faldo

Faldo achieved instant European Tour successes, finishing eighth on the Order of Merit in 1977, and third in 1978; and winning a European Tour event in each of those seasons in 1977, he became the then-youngest player at the age of 20. To begin with, I would say, it looked as wonderful as it could be.
