Metropolis (1927 film)

Clouzot is that sense of existential dread—this is the action movie version of No Exit or L'Etranger, and gloom hangs over it throughout, leavened with sardonic black comedy of a highly misanthropic sort.

Metropolis (1927 film)

While neither film is particularly special, both are good solid B-western entertainment that play very well together as a double-feature.

Old Movies in HD/On Blu

I have no idea how the Columbia release was but Criterion's is truly a flawless and spectacular edition. Effective use of miniatures keeps the naval confrontations exciting.

M (1931 film)

This proved to be, by and large, the most interesting job I have ever done.
