Portrait of a Painter (TV Episode 1962)

Macdonald, his life, legacy and influence.

The Ashbourne portrait

Following the full emancipation of slaves in 1838, more and more schools and hospitals began to be built all over the island. Pichetto, determined that the original painting was completed no earlier than the second half of the 17th century, and the overpainting completed no earlier than the 18th century. Within this era of consolidation, what remained of Port Royal reverted to a more specialised function, a small marine base, a function it has kept to this day.
