Introduction to Scholastic Theology

Bub who sets them in motion? Thomas regards the will as a passive faculty in the technical sense of the word, Scotus and Occam hold it to be purely active like the intellectus agens. What many people today remember of them is little more than a set of negative clichés, not all of them consistent. Meuffels in the Revue Neo-Scholastique of February and November, 1903 ; and by Hogan in his Clerical Studies.
