Social Structure

It was part of the Department of the Treasury from 1798 to 1939, the Federal Security Agency from 1939 to 1953, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in 1953, and the Department of Health and Human Services in 1979.

Social Structure

However, the people of this class were owned by masters, so they had no rights and were severely underfed. Courts of Appeals Record Group 276 Administrative History The courts of appeals are intermediate courts created by an act of March 3, 1891, to relieve the Supreme Court from considering all appeals in cases originally decided by Federal trial courts. The reports provide the name of the office and the name, class of exemption, and port of entry of each individual being investigated.

Social Culture in China

The records concern primarily general station administration and operations rather than individual immigrants.

History: Ancient China for Kids

They relate to the administration of the Chinese exclusion laws, particularly the enforcement of the provision of the convention of December 8, 1894, for the reentry of certain classes of Chinese laborers. Crafts and trade were secondary, and typically pernicious by diverting productive labor and promoting extravagance. Ming government formalized the registration with the yellow booklet which records every member of a given family.
