He does have some legitimate arguments, but I disagree with some of his points, and I venture to say others would as well, at least concerning the texts in question.

Histories of the English Bible

This book contains many of them: Tyndale's Preface to the New Testament 1526 , 1534; Tyndale's Preface to the Pentateuch, 1530; Cranmer's Preface to the Great Bible, 1540; The Preface to the Geneva Bible, 1560; The Preface to the Rheims New Testament, 1582; The Preface to the Douay Old Testament, 1609; The Preface to the Authorised King James Version, 1611. Pages 11 o-i 18 Contents xiii CHAPTER XII. The vast majority of Christians through the centuries have lived in western and eastern Europe.

The Foundation of the English Standard Version(ESV)

It is clear that its purpose often seems to have been to make a correction of that work. In order properly to locate them, we present below the order of the books in the Septuagint.

BIBLE VERSIONS AND MANUSCRIPTS

A brief history of the version, and files giving all the annotations of a 1599 edition of the Geneva Bible.

It is now certain that the books were not all translated in the time of Ptolemy Philadelphus, nor were they all translated by the same person. Similarly, verse 16 troubles those who believe not—even now! Upon finding Saul, Barnabus does not bring him back to Jerusalem.

The same text without the notes is available with some special concordance features.

This document was later deposited in the royal library at Rome, and later, in 220 A. D. 1859-62 : Pentateuch, Joshua, Judges, and Ruth ; Samuel, Kings, Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Job and Psalms ; Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Prophets. It was copied and re- copied over and over again during the succeeding centuries, by scribes of varying intelligence.
