United Nations in the 21st Century

The Declaration made it clear that certain conditions would have to create the right climate for negotiations. We take this opportunity once more to pledge our complete solidarity with the embattled people of Angola, with the MPLA-Workers Party, the government and the armed forces of that revolutionary country, convinced that together we will defeat the common enemy. We reiterate that we believe that an international conference under the auspices of the United Nations at which all parties to the conflict, including Israel and the PLO on an equal footing, are represented is the best guarantee for the implementation of a just peace. Hon MSA Masango: Chairperson of Portfolio Committee The Chairperson wished to enumerate a few events that were linked to the public lecture.

Read the most important speech Nelson Mandela ever gave

In our country, the process of negotiations which we initiated to end apartheid and create a united, non-racial, non-sexist and democratic South Africa has run into a major obstacle: the government of the National Party. National Education Crises Committee At one stage I was member of the National Education Crises Committee in my local province.
