On the one hand, a polemic that runs from one treatise to another notably in the mDzod bdun seems to be aimed at a certain follower of this school, whom we have not identified. He also left his mark on Tibetan memory for his qualities as an active teacher and for his immense material donations to various masters and institutions.

A Biography of Klong chen rab 'byams (6)

This escaped my attention when I was preparing the doctoral dissertation and even the 2007 French book. Perhaps that of Nāro and that of Nigu.
